

YOU CAN TRUST GOD TO ### WRITE YOUR STORY

by Nancy and Roger Wolgemuth

Reviewed by Rhonda Byma

Who doesn't love a good story? This book has so many encouraging and inspiring true stories that the authors share from their personal life, from their friends, and of people from the Bible who have faced all kinds of life-altering challenges at some time. This book IS a good story, and as you read it, you will learn why you can really trust God to write your story no matter what struggles or trials you encounter along the way. God is the Master Storyteller. He's writing your story and it's a part of the bigger, eternal story. You really can trust Him! Non-fiction.

KAREN KINGSBURY FANS

We will be completing the Baxter Family Book Series in the next few months. These are 8 stand-alone stories that can be read in any order. We have 3 in our library already and will be adding 1-2 more each month. These are wonderful Christian based stories and if you haven't read Karen before, I encourage you to try them.

TRULY, MADLY, DEEPLY

by Karen Kingsbury

Reviewed by Anita Geurink

This book is a sweet story of Annalee and Tommy. They are a young couple who are in love and have so many hopes and dreams for their future. Can Tommy let go of his expectations and follow his heart? Can Annalee find the strength she needs to fight for her future? Follow their journey as they fight through some really difficult situations and learn to lean on God in new ways.

Adult Fiction

LIFE IN A JAR

by Jack Mayer

If you love World War II true stories with connections to the United States, you will not want to miss this book, based on the true story of Irena Sendler, a Holocaust Hero, and the Kansas teens who "found" her for their High School History project. Irena was a Polish Catholic social worker who organized a rescue network to save 2,500 Jewish Ghetto children. Three high school girls read about Irena and fashioned a play they called "Life in a Jar". Why were all those papers put in a jar and buried? Read this gripping story and find out. Non-fiction.

ALL THAT WE CARRIED

by Erin Bartels

Ten years ago, sisters Olivia and Melanie Greene were on a hiking trip when their parents were in a fatal car accident. They haven't seen each other since. Now, at Melanie's insistence, they are embarking on a hike in the Porcupine Mountains of Michigan's Upper Peninsula. Will their journey be one they had never considered? We also have The Words Between Us from this newer Michigan author.

Adult Fiction

THE LIBRARIAN OF BOONE'S HOLLOW

by Kim Vogel Sawyer

During the Great Depression, FDR funded a program to help impoverished coal-mining families have books to read in the hills of Kentucky by funding traveling libraries, distributed by mostly women on horse-back or mule-back. City-dweller Addie Cowherd had dreams of becoming a novelist, but when her father loses his job, she is forced to take the only employment she can find. This is a great historical story about superstitions and deep suspicions of outsiders and learning to love a community. Addie will also unearth the truth about a decades old rivalry. Adult Fiction

THE BIG BOOK ADVENTURE

by Emily Ford and Tim Warners

There is nothing like a book to take you to places you've never been. Best friends Foxy and Piggy can't wait to tell each other about all of their adventures in reading! Flying over Neverland, swimming with a mermaid, joining in a mad tea party, soaring on a magic carpet—old classics come to life in the eyes of two little readers who can't believe what they've seen. Journey back to old favorites and experience the magic all over again in this adorable picture book about the joys of reading, perfect for March is Reading Month.

Children's Picture Book