

ESCAPE TO FREEDOM

by Alois Huf & Cristie Jo Huf Johnston

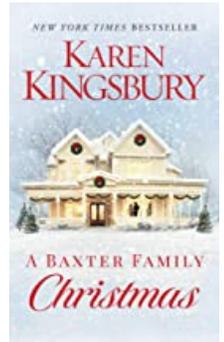

This is the extraordinary post-World War II adventure of a man and a woman who struggle to survive and the sacrifices they make to find freedom, love, hope and redemption in a new world. Alois's story begins in Czechoslovakia, continues in Germany and ends in Hudsonville Michigan! You will feel his struggles and admire his work ethic. His faith journey will inspire you. A biography you will not want to miss. Non-fiction

A BAXTER FAMILY CHRISTMAS

by Karen Kingsbury

This is Book 1 and the final book in this series of stand-alone stories about the Baxter families and the grandchildren. Two years have passed since the terrible car accident that took the life of John Baxter's daughter Erin and her family. Prompted by grief, John invites a stranger for Christmas Eve. But not just any stranger: Kendra Bryant is the recipient of Erin's heart. Will each family embrace their guest? How will the woman's presence affect his granddaughter Amy, the only survivor of the accident? Heartwarming and touching, filled with love and redemption. Fiction

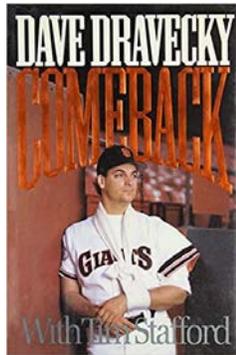

COMEBACK

by Dave Dravecky & Tim Stafford

Reviewed by Rick Johnson

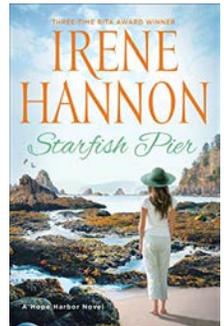

This book tells the story of the life of Dave Dravecky. Dave was a baseball pitcher that played in the minor leagues a number of years and then got called up to a major league team. He played a number of years and then noticed a sensation in his arm. He had an MRI and it showed a mass growing. He had surgery to have it removed and it was cancerous. During this period he spent time in prayer and Bible study with Christian friends and teammates. He was unsure if he would be able to return to pitching. Read the book to see how his career ended. Dave always gave testimony as to his personal Savior Jesus Christ and what that meant to his life story. Non-Fiction

STARFISH PIER by Irene Hannon

Book 6 in the Hope Harbor Series.

A year ago, ex-Delta Force operator Steven Roark left the rigors of combat behind to run fishing charters in Hope Harbor, decompress and talk some sense into his kid brother Patrick. Business is good – but making peace with his past is more challenging than he expected. First-grade teacher Holly Miller moved away from home and joins the volunteer group Helping Hands. But when she steps out to speak for a case, she finds herself on opposite sides of an issue that disrupts their community. Fiction

THE WISH BOOK CHRISTMAS

by Lynn Austin

Best friends Audrey and Eve can't wait to celebrate Christmas in postwar America. They are thrilled about starting new traditions with their five-year old sons. But when the 1951 Sears Christmas Wish Book arrives and the boys start obsessing over every toy in it, these mothers realize their most important task is teaching them the true meaning of the holiday by giving presents, not asking for them. A refreshing Christmas story! These characters are taken from Lynn Austin's book If I Were You, but this book can be read alone. Fiction

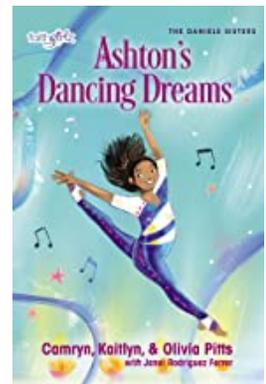

ASHTON'S DANCING DREAMS

by Camryn, Kaitlyn & Olivia Pitts

Reviewed by Nthabeleng Geurink

It is a good book, and if other kids read Ashley's Big Bakeoff, they would like this book. The book also taught you about praying and friendships and if you like dance you would love this book a lot. The last thing is that it shows you how to be kind to each other even though they may be different, teaches Bible verses and says that God is in control. This is a good story about sisters and your emotions. Book 2 in the Daniels Sisters Series.

Junior Fiction

